Some of the best of the season's stage tills are jet to come at the Olympic and at the Century. The Olympic attractions include a number of capable players who are new to the West. Among them are Charles Hawtree and Martin Harvey, both of England. The appearance of Electoral Duse, at the Century, will be another interesting occasion. The Discription entertain-ments will be as follows: Week of December 29, "Florodora"; Jan-

Mrs. Campbell; January 12, Charles Hawtree; January 19, Kyrle Bellew; January 25 and February 2, "Ben-itur"; February 9, Martin Harvey; February 16, John Drew, February 25, Dan Daiy, March 2, "A Chinese Honeymoon"; March 2, the Roger Brothers: March 16, Mrs. Lingtry, March 25, Frameis Wilson; March 26, E. S. Wil-lard; April 6, Ethel Barrymore; April 13, Mary Mannering; April 29, William Faversham; April 27, Julia Marlowe; May 3,

After Robert Eleson's engagement at the Century, the following attractions will play Elenora Duse in "Francesca da Rimini," "King Dodo." "Prince of Pilsen," the Four Johans, Blanche Waish, James O'Neill, "The Strollers," Castle Square Opera Company and "Checkers."

Eleonora Duse will appear at the Olympic the week of December 19. It had been the intention of the Italian actress to present hor entire repertoire of plays by Gabriste d'Annunzio, but the success of "Francesca da Rimin" has decided her to limit her performances to this play only. "Frances-ca da Rimini" will be given on Monday evening, December 23, Tuesday December 39, Thursday January 1, and Friday January There will no performances on Wednes-day and Saturday evenings. The sale of seats for the four performances will begin. December 12.

Ezra Kendall is coming to the Olympic Sunday night in a new firmly play written for him by Herbert Hall Winslow. The name of the piece is "The Vinegar Buyer, was from James Whiteomb ittley's poem f "Jan Miller" that "The Vinegar Buyer" f "Jan Miller" was evolved. Although the work was done by Winslow, a great many suggestions were made by the comedian bimself. Contrary to apectations, he will not confine himself enlifely to comedy With Mr. Kendall will appear Charles

Bowser, Marion Abbott, Edward Chapman, Lottle Alter, Walter Thomas, Ida Darling, Roy Fairchild, Rose Norris, John D. rick, Frank A. Howson, Jr., and Harry

Robert Edeson, who has heretefore appeared in St. Louis in support of others, will play the leading part in "Soldiers of For-tune." This offering will follow "Old Innocence" at the Century. The adventures of Robert Clay, the Langhams, Captain Stu-art, Captain Burke and MacWilliams in the South American Republic of Olancho are unfoided by Augustus Thomas in four acts. Mr. Thomas is said to have simplified and strengthened the love interest between Hope and Clay. Robert Edeson will be Clay, and Ellen Burg will be seen as Hope. The story is wholesome and diverting.

The Liliputians have a new musical extravaganza this season. "In Posterland," it is called. They will present it at the Grand Opera-house next week. The first act will picture a scene in Chinatown, San Fran-cisco. From there the little entertainers will wander into posterland, imitating Billy Bounce, Foxy Grandpa, Happy Hooligan, Alphonse and Gaston, the Katzenjammer Kids and others. The last act will show a spectacular idea of fairyland. Inez Lewis, who is now 20 years old, is a member of the

> Willis Granger, clever young actor, is the hero of "Gypsy Jack" at the Imperial. He is also something of a martyr, for he is worth much better things, "Gypsy Jack" is an English melodrama. Like that celebrated ten they are always the same. The Baronet is a miserable sinner with a past; the solicitor is an accomplice; the villian wants an estate and swears that the girl shall be his. Gypey Jack (Willis Granger) omes on and off and says lovely things and arries food to indigent old ladies and wants to give up the estates to a none too beautiful girl. The part requires him to off the stage, the gallery knows exactly when he will come on. He is due at every clamax and he is nost punctual. Of the three feminine gypeles in the piece, one was put out her misery before the play pened, the other nepears and gets strangled and the tilita dies in the center of the

Mr. Granger blassif works hard, and when he is present you begin to take an interest. The reads well, this portrayal of he Romany character is often picturesque. Carl Authony, as Gerald Skinner, the bad Inglishmen, does his best to make the galry shudder, but the boys like something thicker and more lingering. Dorothy La Mar, a cheerful girl, plays the ingenue, Dorothy Dexter, Lottle Williams will ome to the Imperial next week in "Only Shop Girl.

Harry Williams's Imperial burlesquers will appear at the Standard at the close of the Rosa Sydell engagement. "Two Veterans," a musical raview, will begin next week's show. In the vaudeville bill, Ford and Dot West will offer an act, "The Walter and the Maid." Edith Randall and E. E. Perry will present "A Vassar Boy." Cliff Gorden and Etta Victoria, are also on the programme. The last act will show the Imperials on a yacht bound for Egypt.

REHEARSING "JIM BLUDSO." Rearrangement of Secretary Hay's "Pike County Ballads."

CHARLEST SPECIAL New York, Dec. 17.—Rehearen's began yes-terday for the big melodramatic production of "Jim Bludso," which Messrs Rich and Harris will present at the Fourteenth Street Theater on January 5. Street Theater on January 2.

The play is a dramatic arrangement of Secretary John Hay's "Pike County Italiads," introducing "Banty Tim" and "Little Breeches" as well as the hero of he famous poem.
It is promised that several startling novel-thes will be shown in the way of scenic ef-fects. One of the scenes is the race be-tween two steamberts on the Mississippi Hiver, ending in an explosion and an origiral fire effect while another shows the breaking of the leves, which protects the bottom lands from the waters of the river. The company which will present "Jim Bludso," is headed by Robert Hillard and includes such well-known players as Theodore Roberts, Walter S. Craven, Josephine Lovett, Jessie Mae Hall and others.
